EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Chicago metropolitan executive-travel risk is ELEVATED for Saturday because of verified planned activity in the Loop: 9:00 a.m. Chicago River bridge lifts, and an organizer-confirmed 12:00-3:00 p.m. rally and march at Federal Plaza. The exact march route, attendance and street-control plan remain unconfirmed. A venue-confirmed Dave Matthews Band concert at the United Center tonight and CTA Blue Line shuttle buses on the O'Hare branch add localized delays. Hotel labor action was reported at eight properties in October; today's individual hotel status is not verified. No newly verified executive-directed threat was identified in the public sources reviewed.

PROTECTIVE INTELLIGENCE STAFF ASSESSMENT

ASSESSMENT

Assessment: ELEVATED executive travel risk; MODERATE protective-intelligence concern. Primary exposure is predictable mobility disruption from a noon Loop rally/march, sequential 9 a.m. bridge lifts and entertainment/sports surges. Hotel picket impacts are property-specific and must be verified. No publicly corroborated threat directed at an SOC principal was located in sources reviewed. Crime advisories reflect prior patterns, not verified overnight incidents.

PRIORITY PROTECTIVE ACTIONS

1. Avoid committing client vehicles to Federal Plaza/Dearborn-Adams 11:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. until event route and police restrictions are checked.
2. Pre-plan river-crossing alternatives before the 9:00 a.m. boat run. Build time buffers for sequential bridge lifts.
3. Use controlled hotel doors and confirm valet/picket conditions directly with each property; keep a low-profile alternate pickup.
4. Protect client devices, bags and credentials at dining/meeting venues. Stage drivers with vehicles where feasible.
5. Recheck ORD/MDW flight and NOTAM status; allow extra time for O'Hare Blue Line shuttle substitution and Sunday venue traffic.

24-72 HOUR OUTLOOK

Saturday, Nov. 7: Highest downtown routing sensitivity 9 a.m. (bridge lifts) and noon-3 p.m. (Federal Plaza), with Fulton activity midday and United Center access 5:30-10:30 p.m. Weather cool/dry.

Sunday, Nov. 8: Near 59 F, gusts to 25 mph. Bulls at United Center 2:30 p.m.; Bears at Soldier Field 7:20 p.m. Expect event ingress/egress surges, especially Museum Campus and West Side.

Monday, Nov. 9: Near 59 F, mostly sunny. Blue Line shuttle ends 4:00 a.m.; normal weekday traffic resumes. Reassess any continuing protest or hotel labor impact before morning assignments.
